So I am excited to see it. I hope all of you that were planning to go bought a ticket. They are now finished with buying tickets. Hope to see you all there!

Upcoming Field Trips

Sorry for such short notice, but I plan to have a mini field trip to the library this week on Wednesday from 10:45am to 11:45am. We will walk over there as a group, including another staff member and I. The librarian is going to give us a tour and show us how to check out library books. I will have the students checking out library books from the African American History section. In order to check out the books, Parents will need to sign their permission slips and library card forms.

We will also be taking a Field Trip to the Chabot Space and Science Museum on March 14. We will be taking the 4th-8th graders on this trip. It is in Oakland so we will need parent chaperones/drivers. Mrs. Bakken, Dr. Nomura, and I will be the teachers attending. Permission slips will be sent out soon.
