

Miss Mathews 1st/2nd Combo Class

8/23/2019

Welcome to the new school year! I am enjoying getting to know all of my students over this first week of school. They are all so amazing, and I look forward to seeing them progress over this school year. If you have not brought in your child's school supplies, please bring those in this week. The list of supplies is on our school website.

Our first homework packet is going home today and is due next Friday. Please make sure your child is reading every single night and practicing their Bible verse and spelling words. We will have a written spelling test every Friday.

Blessings,

Miss Mathews
