Happy fall! Fall is finally here...kind of! I think Mother Nature is still a little confused. Even though it was hot this week, cooler weather is coming which means sweatshirts and jackets will be needed. Make sure everything is labeled with your child's name. Especially chapel sweaters! I do my best to keep those sweaters inside backpacks but sometimes it's a losing battle! 😊 This week we have been reviewing our word wall words-and, I, like, the. We are getting really good at spotting them everywhere! It's so fun to see their little faces light up when they discover a word that they can read. I am going to send home our first list of sight words at the beginning of October. They are called Rainbow Words and there are six lists. Your child can learn them and read them at their own pace.

Remember to keep selling apple pies for our fundraiser! We have until October 23rd to sell all the pies we can. They are really so delicious and worth the money.

Tomorrow, 9/27 is a minimum day. All students will be released at 12:00! It is also our first theme dress day. The theme is casual day. This means students can wear whatever they like to wear at home. But we still have P.E. tomorrow so appropriate shoes and clothes need to be worn. If your child does not want to dress in the theme of the day they can wear spirit shirt and jeans/shorts or our regular school uniform.

I have a stack of homework that needs to be corrected if anyone would be interested in doing it at home. Email me and let me know and I will send it home in your child's backpack. Have a great weekend!
