Music:

Happy Friday!

Although we only met once this week, the 4th graders did a terrific job with their ukulele performances on Monday! Please continue to work on chord transitions and strumming patterns. Also, make sure to take a look at the Christmas music packet and take note on which songs you'd like to learn to play. Know that we won't be able to get through all of the songs BUT we will definitely do Mele Kalikimaka :)

For those of you with roles/solos in the Christmas musical, I will try to make digital tracks of the songs this weekend and email them to you. Otherwise, you will get a CD on Monday!

See you all Monday!
